Momotaro

September 3rd to 19th 2010

The Singapore Airline Theatre, LaSalle College of the Arts
Recommended for everyone aged 4 to 94!
75 minutes with one interval

Dear Principal & Teachers,

Greetings from I Theatre! We hope this year has been good for you. So far it is an exciting introduction to the year of the tiger.

Once again, we are delighted to present another brand new and unique production, Momotaro – The Peach Boy. The amazing journey of Momotaro is an epic adventure of idealism, friendship, heroism, daring deeds, growing up and comic misadventure.

Momotaro is the story of a young boy, cut from a peach and raised by an elderly couple. As a young man, he decides to travel to the island of the baddies, defeat them and return the riches that they have taken. On his daring journey, he finds three faithful friends, who help him in his amazing adventure.

This classic Japanese Folk Tale sees a marvellous transformation with a fusion of Japanese and World puppetry, live action, music and theatre magic.

WATCH OUT FOR:

A Brand New, State Of The Art Theatre Space!

Catchy Songs!

Colourful Quirky Characters!

A Strong Message About Friendship!

A Warning About Greed And Selfishness!

We are presenting Educational Establishments the very special offer of PRIORITY BOOKING of tickets at the EXTRA SPECIAL REDUCED PRICE OF $29.00 (Instead of normal price of $42.00 plus $1.00 SISTIC fee). Contact I Theatre direct for Special Educational Establishment offer with free tickets for teachers.

Our previous productions have sold out very fast, so we advise you to book soon in order to secure your tickets before ticket sales open to the public on 25th June!

A free Teachers' Resource and Stimulus Pack is available for those who make a group booking.

The NAC Arts Education Programme supports this programme.

See overleaf for your Ticket Booking Form. For more details on the production, for posters and brochures please call or email us.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Regards,

Brian Seward
