Ollie and the Slurge

March 3rd to 19th 2010

Alliance Française Theatre, 1 Sarkies Road

Recommended for everyone aged 4 to 94!

60 minutes with no interval

Dear Principal & Teachers,

Greetings from I Theatre! We hope this year has been good for you. 2009 saw an exciting line-up of I Theatre's brand new productions; and DUCK and DIVE – The Ugly Duckling & The Frog Prince has just ended its four-week run with wonderful reviews from the audience. We are really looking forward to 2010 - another year filled with fun, interesting and impressive performances that will give lots of reasons to bring your lessons out of the classroom and into the theatre!

Once again, we are delighted to present another brand new production, Ollie and The Slurge. This is a meaningful, fun and interactive performance that addresses two important issues – Bullying & Caring for Our Precious Environment.

Ollie is bullied at school, because of his appearance, and his ideas on caring for the environment. The boss bullies Ollie's father at work, because times are hard. The boss's wife bullies the boss at home, because she always wants more money. One day, the boss orders Ollie's father to dump some unwanted waste into the sea to save money. The Slurge Monsters soon grow and transform very quickly to terrify the city! While the Slurge Monsters devour everything in their path, Ollie has an accidental meeting with Spudge, a special little creature with a conscience. Together, they deal with bullies and learn how to destroy the Slurge Monsters!

This wonderful story, using puppetry, music and fun to help us realise that wise words are worth listening to!

WATCH OUT FOR:

Colourful characters!

A strong environmental message!

A warning to bullies!

Audience interaction!

An engaging and delightful story told in a visual physical style!
